

Ron Sheban Competition & Awards

This special competition was set up by Ron Sheban's widow Janet in memory of Ron's love for architecture and photography. The following rules shall apply:

1. There shall be an annual "Ron Sheban Memorial Competition".
2. The competition shall be open to all members of the St. Louis Camera Club, without regard to what class the entrant is placed in for regular competitions.
3. The theme of the competition shall be "Architectural Photography." There shall be no limits with respect to the time or place the photo was taken. The person or persons judging the competition shall be the sole arbiter(s) of whether or not a given image fits within the theme.
4. There shall be two competitions, one for projected images and one for prints (color or monochrome). Members may enter both competitions. Each of the two competitions will have a first, second and a third place award and two honorable mentions with prizes (defined in 5 below).
 - a. Projected Images shall comply with the technical specifications that are in effect for regular competitions.
 - b. Prints shall comply with the size specifications that are in effect for regular competitions, and may be toned, tinted or otherwise modified at the discretion of the maker.
5. The prizes awarded shall be as follows:

Competition	First	Second	Third	HM	HM
Projected Image	$100	$65	$30	$15	$15
Prints	$100	$65	$30	$15	$15

6. Competition points shall not be awarded for this competition. Images that have won points in regular competitions shall be eligible for this competition, and images that have received awards in this competition shall be eligible for points in regular competitions.
7. This competition will be perpetual.
